

Fall 2019 PLAY Program Update

The Promoting Life-skills in Aboriginal Youth (PLAY) program currently partners with 95 First Nation, Métis and Inuit communities and urban Indigenous organizations across 7 provinces/territories: Alberta, British Columbia, Labrador, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Ontario and Yukon. The Fall 2019 Program Update provides a snapshot of the reach and impact that Community Mentors, Right To Play staff and youth themselves have had in their communities between September and November 2019.

3267

children & youth have been reached through regular PLAY programming across 7 provinces/territories between Sep. and Nov. 2019

24

Youth-Led Initiatives (YLIs) were planned and led by PLAY participants between Sep.-Nov. 2019

52

Intergenerational Events (IGEs) were planned and led by Community Mentors between Sep.-Nov. 2019

of PLAY participants are girls or gender non-binary

1224

Adults engaged with youth at community events between Sep.-Nov. 2019

